

TOP-20

What to do?

Welcome to Moscow

- Stroll through Red Square and the Kremlin
- Take a boat ride on the Moscow River
- Walk along Old and New Arbat streets
- See a performance at the Bolshoi Theatre
- Soar over Moscow in a cable car at Vorobyovy Gory
- Climb the Ostankino TV Tower
- Find out how many sea creatures live in Europe's largest oceanarium, Moskvarium
- Count the animal species at the Moscow Zoo (spoiler: 1,253)
- Learn about the modern layout and attractions at VDNH
- Immerse yourself in art at the Tretyakov Gallery or the Pushkin Museum
- Spend a day at one of Moscow's estate museums, like Kolomenskoye or Tsaritsyno
- Stroll through one of the dozens of Moscow parks, such as Gorky Park
- Take a tour of the metro stations
- Explore Zaryadye Park, the floating bridge, and the ice cave
- Snap a photo with Moscow's "Manhattan" – the Moscow City district – in the background
- Check out the trendy Patriarch Ponds (Patriki)
- Visit the Cathedral of Christ the Saviour
- Relive childhood wonder at one of the circuses, such as on Tsvetnoy Boulevard
- Count Stalin's Seven Sisters skyscrapers – and if you're lucky, visit one
- Watch the sunrise from one of Moscow's bridges

What to bring back?

- Traditional Matryoshka
- The signature “Moscow” cake
- Tea from the historic “Chai-Kofe” store on Myasnitskaya Street
- Cosmetics or perfumes from the “Novaya Zarya” factory
- A souvenir from a museum gift shop, such as board games or puzzles

What to try?

- Stolichny or Moskovsky salad
- Moskovsky rassolnik soup
- Moscow-style borscht
- Napoleon cake
- Famous Ice Cream in GUM

